

APOGEE ADVENTURES

2024 New England Mountains & Coast

Summarized Itinerary

Trip Begins: Wakefield, Massachusetts (flights into Boston, MA)

Trip Ends: Wakefield, Massachusetts (flights out of Portland, ME)

Days 1-2: Our group will meet outside of Boston this afternoon. From there, we will climb into our van and travel to the White Mountains of New Hampshire, where we will spend our first afternoon familiarizing ourselves with our camping gear, getting to know one another, playing games, and getting excited about our trip. We'll hit the trail running (figuratively, of course) on Day 2 as we set off to explore all that the White Mountains have to offer.

Day 3: On the morning of Day 3, we will meet our rock climbing guides and spend the day climbing the granite rock faces in New Hampshire's Echo Lake State Park. Our group will practice communication and teamwork through both belaying and climbing, and there will be a variety of routes available, so there will be something for both our experienced climbers and our first-timers. After conquering the rock together, we'll be more connected as a group and ready for more adventure ahead.

Days 4-6: For the next several days, we'll day-hike and explore the spectacular Presidential Range of New Hampshire's White Mountains. From our basecamps in Pinkham Notch and Crawford Notch in the heart of the White Mountains National Forest, we will set out and spend our days picnicking above the tree line in alpine fields and looking for wildlife in the New England woods. We might even try to "bag" some of the peaks in the Presidential Range (including Mount Washington!), a true highpoint of the trip.

Day 7: On Day 7, we'll leave the pine-scented forest and riverbanks of northern New Hampshire for Maine's rocky shoreline. We'll spend the afternoon doing volunteer service work with one of several local community groups.

Day 8: On our last full day together, we will meet our professional sea kayaking guides for a paddling safety and skills orientation before setting out on the protected waters of Casco Bay near beautiful Orr's Island. There may be time to get in one last swim before we head to Portland's Old Port for a celebratory dinner at a local restaurant – a great ending to a great trip!

Day 9: Day 9 marks our final morning together. After packing up camp one last time, we'll head back towards Wakefield to say our final farewells, promising to stay in touch with new friends.
